

Drawing/Modeling Release

This document hereby gives Ashlar-Vellum's Marketing Department clear release to use the following drawings or models, submitted by _____ as the author:

- Any work listed above that was originally done for outside clients has either been cleared with those clients, and/or all identifying references have been removed from the file, to protect the client's privacy as desired by the client.
- All work will be submitted in an Ashlar-Vellum native drawing or modeling file format.
- This release gives Ashlar-Vellum the right to modify the file as necessary to enhance it for any particular use. The author will still retain the copyright to the drawing or model.
- Whenever the drawing or model is used in print, the authors name and company will be referenced.
- When posted to the Gallery of the Ashlar-Vellum website, the author's name, and company will be included.
- The author's logo, name, company and address should be included in the title block of the drawing or model upon submission, providing their identity if the file is used as a sample on our product disks.
